

Property Lending Barometer 2024

Date 11. 12. 2024, 9:00-10:30

Location Pobřežní 648/1a, Prague

Price Free

The launch of the survey Property Lending Barometer 2024, marking the milestone 15th edition of KPMG's flagship survey on the real estate financing landscape in CEE.

This annual survey captures unique insights into the priorities and perspectives of key financial institutions on real estate sector lending. The event will be hosted by Pavel Kliment, Head of Real Estate at KPMG.

Highlights of the Event:

- Keynote speech: We are pleased to announce that Jan Frait, Deputy Governor of Czech National Bank, has agreed to join us as the keynote speaker.
- Interactive panel discussion: Engage with Omar Koleilat (CRESTYL), Matthias Huber (Raiffeisen Bank International), Lenka Kostrounová (ČSOB), Tomáš Salajka (CPI Property Group), Dušan Sýkora (Reico) and other influential voices from leading banks, investors, and developers operating in CEE real estate markets.

The launch will be held at KPMG's premises, offering a networking with prominent industry representatives.

The event is organized in cooperation with the Association for Real Estate Market Development (ARTN).

For further details, please reach out to us at akce@kpmg.cz.

About Property Lending Barometer 2024

Property Lending Barometer is a survey focused on bank financing of commercial real estate projects that has been carried out by KPMG for 15 years now. This year, data was collected from banks from CEE countries.

Visit websites dedicated to previous editions of Barometer survey.

KPMG reserves the right to limit the final list of participants. The event is not for participants from consultancy services.